The Position

Trout Lake School is searching for an outstanding Spanish teacher who may also be able to teach other classes. This could include elementary or middle school core subjects. This is an extraordinary opportunity to create a dynamic, vibrant program that allows flexibility and creativity. Trout Lake School has had a K-12 Spanish program for the last 5 years. The job would allow the right person to have wide influence on many different students throughout the school system. Students in this small rural school district are highly motivated and eager to learn.

The Community Trout Lake is a beautiful community located in the eastern Cascade Mountains of Washington State. 12,300 ft. Mount Adams towers over this pristine valley, and the community rallies around its K-12 school of approximately 225 students.

Responsibilities and Qualifications Sought

1. Must hold a Washington State Certificate. Spanish endorsement is preferred but not mandatory.
2. Able to speak Spanish fluently and carry on a conversation in the classroom environment.

3. Ability to manage the classroom environment successfully.
4. Provide differentiated instructional support including accommodations and modifications to make sure all students are learning
5. Commitment to rural education and a belief that there is not a more urgent task than to provide students in a small rural school with a quality education.
6. Belief that all students can learn.
7. Innovative spirit and willing to be flexible and try new things to bring about a quality education for rural students

8. Willing to engage with the total school program including extra curricular activities and classes other than Spanish
9. Team player who is able to coordinate the entire program of a small rural school while still doing an outstanding job of teaching classes as well.
10. Willing and able to work with ESL students and to provide translation services for a variety of meetings.
11. Interested to provide an education that embraces the whole child.
